Using an integrated, holistic approach to reading and writing, this book is designed to help adult readers of varying backgrounds strengthen their cognitive abilities, view reading as a positive experience, develop the essential strategies needed for successful college and lifelong reading, and explore contemporary controversial issues. Broad in scope, it combines mature, high-interest reading selections with in-depth practice activities and a broad spectrum of reading comprehension questions and suggestions for discussion and journal writing. The focus throughout is on literal and inferential comprehension of book, essay, and literary material, as well as on the skills and strategies necessary for critical thinking, vocabulary development, and effective study techniques.
